

Campaign in a Box – The Growth Campaign

Integrated and immediate.
A complete cross-channel
rollout plan.

1. What It Is

The Growth Campaign helps you build brand momentum across multiple channels. You receive a cohesive campaign with consistent messaging, creative assets, and clear tracking, so your brand shows up often and clearly. Delivered on a short lead time, it is ideal for growing awareness, driving engagement, and keeping your audience connected from post to ad to inbox.

2. Ideal For

When you need consistency and reach. The Growth Campaign is the right fit for brands that need steady visibility, a clear message across platforms, and a posting rhythm your team can run with.

3. How It Works

1. Send your brief – Share your offer, audience, and goals using an online form (link at the bottom of this document).
2. Approve the concept – Review and sign off on your campaign message and direction.
3. We build your box – Copy, creative, and rollout plan assembled and aligned.
4. Review & refine – Apply your feedback in two revision rounds.
5. Final delivery – Receive neatly packaged folders, guidelines, and your ready-to-use assets.

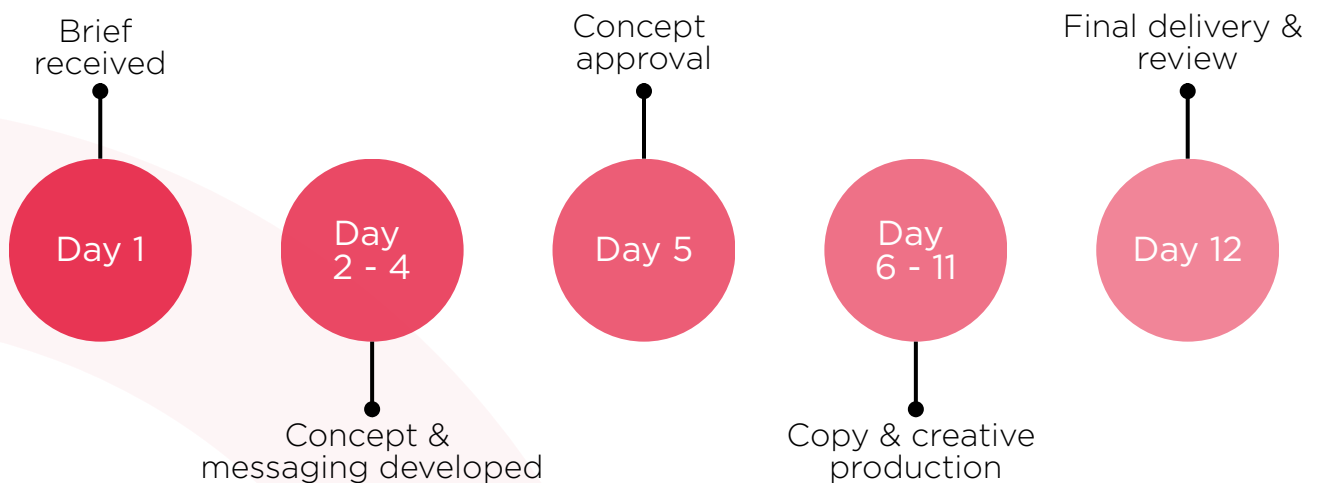

4. Outcome

Bigger presence, steady momentum. Show up often and clearly with unified messaging, scalable creative, and a simple plan to keep it moving.

7. FAQs

Do you use our branding

Absolutely. Every campaign is custom-built around your brand identity, tone, and visual style.

What brand material must we supply

Please provide your logo, font files, brand colours, and any visual references or templates before we start. Missing items can delay your timeline.

Do you handle ad setup

We supply creative and copy that are ready to upload to your chosen platforms. If you need ad setup, we can quote that separately.

What format do we receive files in

All assets are supplied in editable design files aligned to your platform capabilities, plus ready-to-use exports. Everything is neatly organised and labelled.

Can we reuse the creative later

Yes. Once delivered, all final assets are yours to use for future campaigns across your own channels and platforms.

7. FAQs

What if we need more assets than what is included

You can upgrade to the next box or request additional deliverables as an add-on. We will quote based on the scope.

Do you provide ongoing campaign management

Each box covers campaign creation and rollout materials. If you want posting, media buying, or reporting, we can add a monthly support service.

Do you include media spend or placement costs

No. Your box includes creative and strategy only. Any paid media costs are handled directly through your ad accounts.

Can you deliver faster than the standard lead time

Sometimes, yes. An express option may be available depending on the workload. Ask us when you send your brief.

How do revisions work

We share staged mockups during production. Use your included revision rounds during this phase. Please consolidate feedback per round.

What does “delivery” mean

Delivery means you receive the full kit listed for your box in usable formats, together with the campaign plan. Delivery is not dependent on internal approval. One or two revision rounds are included, depending on the box.

How do payments work

A 50% deposit is required to start. The balance is invoiced on delivery and due within 14 days. Prices are quoted in ZAR.

What if we delay approval or feedback

Your timeline pauses until we receive the required inputs or sign-off. Once approval is confirmed, we resume from that date.

What if we need changes after delivery

Requests after delivery fall outside the included scope and are billed as extras.

7. FAQs

What if we do not use our included revisions

Unused included revisions expire at delivery and cannot be used afterwards.

Can we change direction after sign-off

Significant creative or strategic changes after concept approval may affect your timeline and cost. We will always confirm before proceeding.
